The republicans, of Port Huron, elected J. B. McIlwain, mayor; Alvah Withers, clerk; John Hill, treasurer; also a majority of the aldermen.

Hyer's Colored Comedy Co. played to well filled houses Wednesday and Thursday evenings last. Everybody seemed pleased with the entertainments.

The graduating class of the Imlay City school gave their commencement exercises in the Con'l church last week Wednesday evening. The program was interesting and enjoyable.

The heaviest fall of snow at one time this season was experienced on Sunday last. It commenced early in the morning and lasted all day. The fall was about 7 inches on the level. Monday's warm sun soon caused it to disappear.

Mack Henderson is busily engaged erecting a dwelling house for Lemuel Brown and that he will soon commence on J. B. Francis' new barn. He also has the contract for building an addition to Thos. McArthur's store building.

"When the spring-time comes," we usually find ourselves drowsy and exhausted, owing to the impure and sluggish state of the blood. To remedy this trouble, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the most powerful, yet safe and economical blood-purifier in existence.

There will be a maple sugar social in Eli Silverthorn's bush next Tuesday afternoon, weather permitting, given under the auspices of the M. P. church. Parties desiring to attend will find rigs in waiting at Alfred Goheen's furniture store. All are cordially invited.

The president has approved a schedule of appointments of army and navy officers to the established colleges and universities for the promotion of steam engineering and ship-building; as provided for by an act of congress of September 26, 1888. Under the schedule adopted, each state is allotted officers in accordance with its population.

April 30th, at 9 o'clock a. m., it has been arranged that the church bells all over the country shall ring to celebrate the event of one hundred years ago, when the church bells throughout the thirteen states rang out to call the people together to pray for the success and prosperity of the country under General Washington, that day inaugurated President of the United States.

The homeliest man in Brockway Centre, as well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any drugist and get FREE a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. Large bottles 50c and $1.

"Silence Socials" are the latest evening entertainments. The guests assemble and are requested to make as little noise as possible. Pincards warning the visitors not to "wake up the babies" and similar admonitions are hung on the walls. Pencils and paper are supplied and conversation is carried on by that means till the hostess gives the company permission to gab.

The best stores advertise. This can be relied upon. The advertisement indicates that the merchant has goods he is not ashamed of; in fact that he is proud of the quantity and quality of his stock and has confidence in his ability to bear examination. It also shows that he wants to dispose of what he has, and will therefore accommodate customers to achieve his purpose. It is always a polite dealer who studies the convenience of his customers and means business all the time.

John N. Zavitz took his wife to Detroit this week where he will have a tumor removed from her breast.

If your cough keeps you awake and restless by night, take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and obtain immediate relief. This remedy allays inflammation, heals the pulmonary organs, induces sleep, adds restores health. The sooner you begin the better.

J. Bert Duffie left Thursday for Washington Territory, where he goes to open a law office in some thriving town, and in addition endeavor to secure some of the big chunks of boom that have proven so profitable to others.

The man who attends to his own business, obeys the laws of life, seeks the favor of nature and avails himself of her sweet restorer, balmy sleep, has very little trouble; but it is the bright fellows, the wild fellows, the rounders, the high kickers, the rum-and-gummers, the cigarette fiend, the scally-wags of life to whom sorrow and tribulations are daily companions.

Lansing Lossing, treasurer of Greenwood township, was arrested Saturday evening at the instance of County Treasurer Burns for neglecting to make a proper settlement. Lossing is over $1,500 behind in his accounts and maintains a remarkable degree of indifference over the matter. It has been found where he speculated in hay but to what extent is not known. He is now in jail.

Put the little ones happy to bed, says an exchange, alluding to the habit some parents have of deferring punishment for faults committed during the day until bed-time. Never whip children just before they retire to rest. Let the father's caress, the mother's kiss, be the last link between the day's pain or pleasure and the night's sleep. Send the children to bed happy. If there is sorrow, punishment or disgrace let them meet it in the daytime, and have hours of play or thought in which to recover happiness, which is childhood's right. Let the weary feet, the busy brain, rest in bed happy.

The question what to do with our ex-presidents is again under discussion. That is easily enough settled. Don't do anything with them. Let them go to work like other men. The proposition to either pension them or make them U. S. smokers for life is un-American, as it would tend to produce aristocracy, and ought not to be considered. The fact of one having held the highest office in the gift of the people does not transform him into a king or lord to be pampered in idleness. We have no aristocrats in this country and the man who is not willing to accept a high position and afterwards resume the ordinary duties of a citizen is not the kind of a man we want in this Republic.—St. Clair Republican.

SHINGLES FOR SALE.—The undersigned has a large quantity of shingles also any number of cedar posts for sale at his store in Peck all of which will be sold cheap. 46 J. T. WATERMAN.
